

Please do not touch Indiana's telephone privacy law. This law has made our life at home much better. Unsolicited calls are an invasion of our privacy. We need a similar law to stop unwanted e-mail, which is also an intrusion into our lives.